This exceptional 16th-century Grade II listed home is set within three acres of idyllic Kent countryside, offering a rare blend of historic charm and modern living. Enhanced by a contemporary extension, the property provides spacious and well-appointed accommodation across two floors.

The ground floor features two functional reception rooms, a generous kitchen/breakfast room, formal dining room, and a versatile office or playroom, alongside a practical utility room. Upstairs, there are six bedrooms, five of which benefit from stylish en-suite bathrooms.

The property has been freshly redecorated throughout, both internally and externally, and is presented in excellent condition for incoming tenants.

Within the grounds, a detached annexe offers additional flexibility, complete with its own kitchen and two bedrooms—ideal for guests or extended family. A separate garage with a room above provides an excellent opportunity for a home office or gym, while a stable currently serves as a useful wood store for the three wood-burning stoves located across the main house and annexe. The property, Annex and all buildings are equipped with superfast fibre broadband.

The beautifully landscaped grounds ensure complete privacy and include a wooded area with fruit trees, a children's treehouse, a large patio perfect for entertaining, and expansive, level gardens bordered by mature trees, shrubs, and flower beds.

Situated in the charming hamlet of Anvil Green near Waltham, the property enjoys a peaceful rural setting while remaining well connected. Canterbury city centre is approximately seven miles away, and Ashford around nine miles. Chilham train station, just 2.3 miles from the property, provides convenient links to Canterbury, London, and Dover.
